Gentlemen:

This is to confirm my telephone conversation with Mr. Hill on September 14, 1959, concerning cornerstones for the Central Intelligence Agency Headquarters Building, Langley, Virginia.

[REDACTED] of Central Intelligence Agency visited the Green Mountain Division of the Georgia Marble Company at West Endland, Vermont, and inspected the marble slab selected for the cornerstones. The marble is entirely satisfactory, and it is suggested that you proceed with the carving.

Sincerely yours

John J. Buckley
